You are successful in North Rhine-Westphalia (NRW) and now want to take off abroad?
Or would you like to invest here – in Germany's leading business location? Whether in NRW or worldwide: NRW.Global Business is the right partner for your economic success.

One agency – numerous areas of expertise

As the Trade & Investment Agency of the State of North Rhine-Westphalia, we combine in-depth local knowledge with a global orientation. We support companies with investment projects and settlements in North Rhine-Westphalia, while at the same time keeping an eye on global growth markets: If you want to develop new markets with your business from NRW, you have come to the right place.

Experts on countries and industries

Every industry has very different requirements, and every country has different framework conditions. Our team of nearly 100 employees specializes in your individual requirements and will be happy to advise you – both here in North Rhine-Westphalia and at our locations around the world.

Now globally networked

From the U.S. and the U.K. to Japan and China: In addition to our headquarters in Düsseldorf, we have numerous international offices in important markets around the globe – and our network is growing constantly.

Closely connected with NRW for many years

NRW.Global Business possesses decades of know-how and a strong, regional network. As a state-owned foreign trade promotion agency, we work closely with local and regional economic development agencies in the state, the state government of North Rhine-Westphalia, as well as with chambers of industry and commerce, chambers of trade, clusters, state initiatives companies, associations and other business-related organizations.

North Rhine-Westphalia

Dynamic business location in the center of Europe

As Germany's leading economic region, North Rhine-Westphalia (NRW) offers companies optimal conditions to grow both locally and globally. Centrally located in the heart of Europe, major national and international transport routes converge here. The most populous of the 16 German states has very high purchasing power and is considered to be one of the largest sales and procurement markets in Europe. Large listed companies feel just as much at home here as highly specialized family-owned SMEs and creative startups – and over 22,000 international players.

Innovative strength meets cosmopolitanism and cultural diversity

The state's excellent universities produce highly qualified specialists and serve as an important innovation driver. Young and established companies – flanked by a broad research landscape – are pressing ahead with future topics such as digitization or the energy transition and enriching the market with new business models, services and products. Living and working in NRW is characterized by an open-minded, cosmopolitan attitude and a colorful flair, with numerous communities from all over the world. They all appreciate not only the vibrant economic activity, but also the excellent quality of life in NRW with its varied cities and landscapes, six UNESCO World Heritage sites, and a wide range of cultural and leisure offerings.
